On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Everton, who are really making their mark on the First Division scene this season.

Under manager Gordon Lee, they embarked on an unbeaten League run which only ended when they played their 20th game of the season at Coventry on Christmas Saturday on a skidpan of a pitch.

Then, they came back from being 3-0 down to lose 3-2 which goes to show they are always capable of lifting themselves when they seem well beaten.

Our Christmas started well with a 3-0 win over our old rivals Manchester United with Frank Worthington scoring twice and Alan Gowling getting the third. It gave me a great deal of pleasure to see our side playing more like the way we know we can play.

I have said before that our home form has been good—even though we have dropped points here, but our away showing has been causing me some concern.

We played very well at Q.P.R. winning 3-1 but then we gave a disappointing show at Ipswich where we went down 3-0.

Picture by Harry McGuire

I was much happier with the way we played at Middlesbrough where we earned a point and might well have had two with Frank Worthington giving us the lead in the first half and Middlesbrough hitting an equaliser in the dying moments.

These notes were written before our visit to Aston Villa on Saturday, but the signs are that we are at last starting to emerge as we go into the New Year. It won't be easy, nothing is in the First Division, but if we can continue to avoid injuries we can give a good account of ourselves I feel sure.

In closing on this New Year's Day, I would like to wish everyone, on behalf of all at Burnden, a happy and prosperous 1979.

Welcome to . . .

Everton have fought a few blood battles with their deadly Merseyside rivals Liverpool down the years, yet rarely have the stakes been so high as they are at the moment. The atmosphere has been intensifying week by week as these two giants strive to win the big one — the League Championship.

As the holiday games approached, it was beginning to look as if the chase had developed into a two-horse race with the only doubt being as to which side of the city of Liverpool the trophy will be taken next April.

Everton, though always trailing behind until mid-December, have shown the greater consistency and, if they can maintain their tremendous power and efficiency, then they could well pip their rivals to the title.

The Toffees were unbeaten in their first 18 League games and had rarely looked in the slightest danger of defeat. They won away games at Chelsea (1-0), Ipswich (1-0), Norwich (1-0) and Birmingham (3-1) and drew at Manchester United (1-1), Aston Villa (1-1), Bristol City (2-2), Q.P.R. (1-1), Nottingham Forest (0-0) and Arsenal (2-2).

Everton made a fine bid for the Championship last season, too. After losing their first two games, they remained unbeaten in their next 18 League games. They were still unable to catch Nottingham Forest, though, and when their long unbeaten run was shattered by Manchester United, who crushed them 6-2 at Goodison on Boxing Day, they never quite struck the same consistency again.

It was only when Forest got behind with their League fixtures, on account of their runs in both Cups, that Everton got close to them towards the end of the season. In early April Everton closed the gap to two points, but they had played three games more.

As the season drew to a final conclusion, Forest made sure of the title and a disappointed Everton slipped to third place, with Liverpool over-taking them.

Manager Gordon Lee made a couple of important signings during the close-season, paying Blackpool £325,000 for striker Mick Walsh and Newcastle £50,000 for midfield man Geoff Nulty. Soon after the start of this season, he signed England defender Colin Todd from Derby for £300,000.

Until he was injured, Walsh formed a fine partnership with Bob Latchford, spearheading Everton's attack, with Dave Thomas supplying a stream of high crosses for both from the wing.

Mr. Lee found himself with problems when Walsh dropped out and he experimented with Roger Kenyon and Mike Lyons — both essentially central defenders — as his replacement.

Nulty went into the side at the beginning of the season as Trevor Ross was injured but he later accepted that he would have to hand over to the former Arsenal man who usually partners Andy King and Martin Dobson in the middle of the field.

EVERTON

Back Row

Middle Row

King has been in particularly brilliant form with his energetic and skilful displays.

Todd took over the right-back spot from Terry Darracott and partners his fellow England international Mike Pejic at full-back. Mike Lyons and Billy Wright normally fill the central defensive positions though Todd has played there occasionally, as have Mark Higgins and Roger Kenyon.

When this fine Everton defence does falter — and that's not often, as their goals-against record indicates so clearly—then opponents still have to face a George Wood in goal who has touched his peak since joining the Toffees last season.

Everton's elimination from the League Cup and the UEFA Cup have enabled them to concentrate one hundred per cent upon their Championship drive.

In the UEFA Cup they overwhelmed Finn Harps by 10-0 on aggregate but in the next round, though they drew 2-2 with Dukla Prague, they were eliminated on the away goals rule.

There was a bumper Boxing Day crowd for the Lancashire derby between Manchester United and Liverpool at Old Trafford. A crowd of 54,940 saw Liverpool win 3-0 with goals by Jimmy Case, Ray Kennedy and David Fairclough.

Top Second Division attendance was at West Ham for the all-London game against Orient who ran out winners 2-0 in front of 29,220 fans.

In the Second Division, Notts. County's 3-3 draw at Oldham on Boxing Day took their unbeaten run to nine games.

On the same day, Bristol Rovers won 1-0 against leaders Crystal Palace at Selhurst Park for their first Second Division away win of the season.

Bristol City, our opponents at Ashton Gate in the third round F.A. Cup on Saturday, started their Christmas programme with a bang! After a goal-less draw at Chelsea they returned to the West Country to play Coventry and slammed in five goals without reply. Men on target were Joe Royle who scored a hat-trick, Tom Ritchie and Peter Cormack.

FA CUP-TIE ARRANGEMENTS

If Saturday's F.A. Cup third round tie at Bristol City ends in a draw the replay will be here at Burnden Park on Tuesday, January 9th with a 7-30 p.m. kick-off.

Tickets for the Ashton Gate game are on open sale now. They are for the for the Dolman Stand and are £3.

Arrangements in the event of a replay are that the game will be all ticket for stand seats only with pay at the turnstiles for the rest of the ground.

Tickets for stand seats will go on open sale on Sunday, January 7th from 10-00 a.m. to 3-00 p.m. Sales will continue during office hours on Monday, January 8th and right up to kick-off time on the match day.

Seat season ticket holders can collect their tickets on production of the correct voucher. They have until 4-00 tickets will be put on open sale. The p.m. on match day and after that their game is "all pay" at normal League prices.

Frank still the tops . . .

Striker Frank Worthington really had a happy, goalscoring Christmas. He notched a couple of goals in the 3-0 win over Manchester United with Alan Gowling hitting the third.

Then when the side visited Middlesbrough for the Boxing Day fixture, he was on target again to earn a point in a 1-1 draw.

The goals took his tally for the season to 17, three more than his nearest challenger Bob Latchford, who was expected to be in action here today. Bob had 14 followed by Birmingham's Alan Buckley with 13.

GEORGE WOOD (Goalkeeper). One of the safest keepers in the country. George is now in line for a Scottish cap. He began his career with East Stirling and joined Blackpool for a modest £7,000 in 1971. Everton had to pay £150,000 to secure his transfer in the 1977 close-season.

COLIN TODD (Defender). Colin arrived from Derby in a £300,000 deal earlier this season. Though he normally plays at right-back, he still occasionally appears in his old role as a central defender. Colin began with Sunderland, winning England youth and under-23 honours with them. Derby signed him in 1971 for £170,000 and it wasn't long before he earned the first of his 27 England caps.

MIKE LYONS (Defender/Forward). There was a time when Mike was earning England under-23 caps as a defender while playing for Everton as a centre-forward! He was the Toffees' top scorer in 1973/74. For some time now he has been settled back in defence but, when Mike Walsh was unavailable last month, he was given another run in attack.

BILLY WRIGHT (Defender). Billy has the ideal name for a centre-back, of course, and though he only graduated to Everton's senior team last season he has already given an indication that he could follow in the footsteps of his famous namesake for this season he was introduced to the England under-21 eleven.

MIKE PEJIC (Defender). Mike is the son of a Polish miner and he could have qualified to play international matches for Poland. Instead, he chose England and, while with his first club Stoke City, he won four full and several under-23 caps. He was transferred to Everton for £135,000 in 1977.

MARK HIGGINS (Defender). Mark came through from the juniors to earn his first chance in the Toffees' senior side in 1976/77. He earned a regular place in the side last season but has been out of favour for much of this term.

TERRY DARRACOTT (Defender). Terry was the unfortunate one to make way for Colin Todd though he has made occasional subsequent appearances. An Everton player all his life, Terry came into the team in 1967/68 and has on many occasions held a regular place.

NEIL ROBINSON (Defender). Neil joined Everton as an amateur and turned professional in May 1974. As yet, he has made only a handful of senior appearances but he is often nominated as the substitute.

MARTIN DOBSON (Midfield). Martin was once given a free transfer by Bolton before he had had the chance to play in their first team. Burnley signed him in 1967 and he was soon in their team. Before he left Turf Moor, to join Everton for £300,000 in 1974, he gained the first of his five full England caps.

TREVOR ROSS (Midfield). Trevor grew up with Arsenal and made 58 First Division appearances for the Gunners. Everton signed him for £150,000 last season and now he is the man who usually takes their penalties.

GEOFF NULTY (Midfield). Geoff began his career with Burnley but he moved on to Newcastle for £120,000 in 1974. Everton signed him for £50,000 last summer.

BOB LATCHFORD (Forward). Bob's goalscoring feats are now legendary. He has been Everton's top scorer in each of his four completed seasons since joining them from Birmingham for £350,000 in 1974 and last season he hit the 30-goal barrier in the First Division. This season he equalled a League Cup record by hitting five goals in one match and he is yet again the Toffees' top scorer. Introduced to the England team last season, Bob now has six caps.

MICK WALSH (Forward). Mick was Blackpool's leading scorer for three successive seasons and Everton secured his transfer last summer for a fee of £325,000. This season he was recalled to the Republic of Ireland squad and earned his fifth cap against N. Ireland.

DAVE THOMAS (Forward). Dave won eight England caps for his flying and skilful displays on the wing. These came after he had earned youth and under-23 caps in his Burnley days. He left Turf Moor in 1972 to join Q.P.R. for £160,000 and Everton signed him in 1977 for £200,000.

ROGER KENYON (Defender). Roger was for several years a fixture in the middle of Everton's defence and he has played well over 250 League games for the club. He was recently re-introduced to the side in attack as an experiment.

ANDY KING (Midfield). Andy is enjoying a fine season and his goal-scoring tally is now into double figures. He served his apprenticeship with Luton, made his League bow in 1974/75 and was one of the players they were forced to sell when their financial crisis hit them. Everton signed him for a mere £35,000 in 1976.
